Your Personal Invitation

- TRINA ELIASSEN -

TRANSFORM PHYSICALLY, MENTALLY & SPIRITUALLY

Why Azurite & who is Trina Eliassen?

Not believing, but knowing.

TRINA ELIASSEN is a powerful intuitive energy healer known for her innovative insights on how to become ones truest self whilst on this earth.

Understanding how every new direction of your life, if operating from the highest and best for your soul, will always be right even when everybody is telling you are wrong. Learning to “listen” learning to know you are right.

The source of Trina’s healing enery is not derived from any literature, neither from seminars or programs - but from the greatest teacher of all teachers, the “highest source”.

Trina will purposefully not apply teachings from others as she keeps her energy pure and operates from the source. In meeting her you will experience how she applies every chapter of her personal life in learning and teaching others to empower themselves.

TRANSFORM PHYSICALLY, MENTALLY & SPIRITUALLY

*Remembering horrible events are just as intoxicating in our lives as “loving events”.
It is how we perceive them and lose the ingrained perception.*

To see it from an outsider looking inside. But most importantly to raise your vibration every day, to embrace each day, painful or not with vigour and enthusiasm, to surrender and release, to incorporate the universe's help, to operate only from truth as only truth and love will manifest soul intentions.

TRINA CAN GUIDE YOU IN:

- seeing the patterns,
- releasing preconceived ego goals,
- understanding how to use your ego with your soul,
- seeking the highest and best self on this physical world,
- seeing your genetic & personal soul lessons,
- raising your vibration to the highest every day,
- attracting the highest souls and highest wishes within,
- understanding your purpose.
- understanding the many layers of growth with pain,
- accepting painful situations as fantastic gifts from the universe,
- separating yourself from the ego and be in the now without emotional attachment,
- reviewing your life without attachment so you can attract powerful alliances to make your dreams manifest.

Trina's journey to becoming a healer ...

Trina owned a lucrative ICT consulting firm in Southern Florida (USA), and like many other women in their late 30's, she started questioning her existence, her choices, her patterns.

So Trina began to quietly meditate. Not quite knowing what meditation was ("quieting the mind", seeking answers, hearing voices, seeing images?) she spent time alone just trying to raise her awareness.

This went on for several months for several hours at a time. Words and images began appearing to her, and many questions about her choices of life arose. The more she listened, the more she accepted. Huge changes were surfacing. One day whilst meditating she heard an inner voice telling her that she was a powerful healer. Her first thoughts were "Oh no... I don't want to be a hippy."

She had worked so hard in her successful career, with so many difficult events to overcome - from family to business partners - that she couldn't bear to lose it all to become a "healer". After all, she had the perfect life - 'perfect husband'... four perfect children and a powerful career.

She continued listening and the more she surrendered and accepted this wish from the universe, the more her everyday life went into major chaos. She saw that her solid marriage and successful career, and all the choices she had made in her current life, were perhaps completely wrong for her.

She decided to change her life.

The result of her choice ...

Although barely surviving in taking care of her children, Trina never swayed from her true intent on this earth. She humbled herself to work tirelessly, doing daily healings on friends at first, and then clients.

She succeeded in building one of the most sought after health retreats in Australia. All from just listening to her inner voice.

But her life wasn't going to stop when the health resort opened despite it being highly regarded by some of the most affluent people in the southern hemisphere.

The resort featured on television, in magazine articles and newspapers and was patronised by the 'unhealthy wealthy'.

Unfortunately, during the Global Financial Crisis, she lost it all!

However, Trina rose again with all her life lessons and healed herself over a course of several months. She understood that the message she had heard many years earlier telling her that she would own the largest healing resort worldwide, was still yet to come.

*It was going to happen,
not on Trina's time but the Universe's time.*

TRANSFORM PHYSICALLY, MENTALLY & SPIRITUALLY

As the teacher, Trina now needed to really “listen” and not feel betrayed again as this was one of her life lessons - to understand that she creates and attracts, in betrayal, only to understand she has the power to release it and grow from it.

Every life lesson is intended for us prior to our arrival. Let Trina show you how to use these painful situations as growth - that we sought out ourselves before coming. Each of our soul mates are here to assist us.

Trina will share all of her powerful painful events and show you how to see yours - release, learn, grow and enlist your “ANGELS” in the universe. To broaden your life, to grow, to live your life with “knowing” zest, enthusiasm and physical energy.

No matter how old you are, where you live, your beliefs or your genetic DNA.

We would like to invite you on this magical journey of “you” being your real you.

DESI WALKERS

By Kristin from our sister publication, Entrepreneur and Entrepreneur of Entrepreneur & Entrepreneur.

As a fitness enthusiast, I know the importance of staying active. In fact, I've been a member of a gym for over a decade. But when I started walking, I realized that I didn't need a gym to stay fit. Walking is a simple, low-impact exercise that can be done anywhere, anytime. It's a great way to burn calories, improve your mood, and reduce stress. Plus, it's a social activity that can be done with friends or family. I've found that walking is a great way to clear my mind and recharge my batteries. It's a simple, yet powerful, way to take control of your health and well-being.
